3 Observations

- Almost universal use of Discord and React
- Most teams displayed good teamwork
- Uncertain requirements
  - Box & whisker computation
  - Protected incumbents
- Design issues
  - Some overuse of DB
  - Some insufficient use of enumerations
  - Many missing controller objects in class diagrams

4 Project Status

- Many teams behind in
  - prototyping client/server interface
  - Developing an interface spec for client/server
- Some teams behind in testing MGGG code
- Many teams not yet prepared for design review
